GRAND BEGINNING: FLAG-OFF ON INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

Amidst the breathtaking backdrop of Kashmir's majestic valleys, we set forth with a spectacular flag-off, marking the beginning of an extraordinary expedition from the crown of India to its southernmost gem, Kanyakumari. This unparalleled journey promises to celebrate the spirit of adventure, camaraderie, and empowerment. Day 1 unfolds with a mesmerizing drive through serpentine mountain roads, each turn revealing awe-inspiring vistas as we descend towards Katra. Awaiting us there is an exclusive, grand surprise event—curated to ignite excitement and set an unforgettable tone for this iconic odyssey.

9th March

KATRA TO CHANDIGARH, 410 KMS

Day 2 takes us deeper into the heart of India as we journey southward toward the vibrant city of Chandigarh. The drive offers a striking contrast of landscapes, transitioning from the verdant hills of Katra to the expansive plains of Punjab.

Chandigarh, a city synonymous with resilience and prosperity, welcomes us with its rich cultural heritage and warm Punjabi hospitality. Here, we pause to soak in the local essence, with moments of rest and rejuvenation preparing us for the adventure that lies ahead.

10th March

CHANDIGARH TO DELHI, 270 KMS

As we depart from Chandigarh, the city of industrial prowess and vibrant culture, the road stretches out ahead, promising a day of immersive travel experiences. The drive is punctuated by the sights of sprawling green fields, quaint roadside dhabas offering irresistible flavours of Punjab, and bustling towns that echo the region's thriving energy. Reaching Delhi, the city of grandeur and grit, we are greeted by a skyline that seamlessly blends historic monuments with modern marvels. Here, the pulse of the drive shifts to the beat of this dynamic metropolis.

11th March

NEW DELHI TO GWALIOR (VIA AGRA), 300 KMS

The drive to Gwalior is a journey through the heart of India, offering glimpses of its rich cultural tapestry. The route transitions from the vibrant chaos of urban Delhi to the serene landscapes of Madhya Pradesh, via Agra. Arriving in Gwalior, we are welcomed by its historic aura, with Gwalior Fort and timeless stories waiting to be explored, marking the perfect end to another memorable day on the road.

12th March

GWALIOR

Enjoy a relaxed day in Gwalior. Spend the day strolling through the magnificent city.

13th March

GWALIOR TO JABALPUR (VIA JHANSI), 460 KMS

The journey from Gwalior to Jabalpur unveils the raw beauty of Central India, as we traverse lush landscapes, winding roads, and quaint settlements that echo the region's rustic charm.

As we approach Jabalpur, the scenery transforms, hinting at the city's natural allure and cultural significance. This drive also marks the halfway point on this incredible K2K journey, with another fabulous day on the road, another chapter in our unforgettable journey!

14th March

JABALPUR TO NAGPUR, 300 KMS

Leaving behind the tranquil charm of Jabalpur, we embark on a scenic drive to Nagpur, the Orange City of India. The route meanders through lush greenery, dotted with dense forests and small villages, offering an immersive experience of Central India's vibrant landscape. En route, local delicacies and the occasional roadside stalls selling fresh produce add a delightful flavour to the journey. The geographical heart of India, Nagpur sets the stage for another captivating leg of this remarkable expedition.

15th March

NAGPUR TO HYDERABAD, 490 KMS

As we leave Nagpur behind, the landscape shifts to open highways bordered by rocky outcrops and occasional bursts of greenery. The drive is punctuated by the charm of small towns and local eateries, where the flavours of Maharashtra and Telangana intermingle.

Approaching Hyderabad, the City of Pearls, the skyline transforms with its unique blend of ancient heritage and modern innovation. From the towering Charminar to the bustling tech hubs, Hyderabad welcomes us with delectable cuisine. The Nizam city sets the perfect tone for the next big day of the drive as we now move towards the southern leg of the drive.

16th March

HYDERABAD TO BENGALURU, 550 KMS

As we bid farewell to Hyderabad, a city steeped in history and culture, the journey ahead unfolds across a picturesque tapestry of South India. The drive is marked by smooth, well-maintained highways that stretch alongside sprawling farmlands, their vibrant greens punctuated by rugged rocky hillocks—a quintessential feature of Telangana's landscape. The destination, Bengaluru—the famed Garden City—awaits with its unique blend of modern innovation and timeless tradition. Known for its pleasant climate, bustling tech corridors, and rich cultural heritage, Bengaluru greets us with its dynamic energy. This 550-kilometer journey, the longest single-day drive of the expedition, is as challenging as it is rewarding, reflecting the resilience and camaraderie of the women. It's a day that pushes boundaries while celebrating the spirit of exploration, culminating in the vibrant embrace of one of India's most iconic cities.

17th March

BENGALURU TO MADURAI, 475 KMS

A journey through the heart of South India. This day's drive reveals a rich tapestry of landscapes and cultural treasures with every passing mile. Departing from Bengaluru's cool breezes and urban energy, the road leads us into Tamil Nadu's picturesque expanse – a land of coconut groves swaying in the breeze, rolling hills, and tranquil countryside. As we drive into this sacred city, a profound realisation dawns that we have championed an extraordinary 4,000-kilometre journey, and with the blessings of Shree Meenakshi Amma Devi, we stand just one day away from crafting a subtle yet momentous chapter of history. This day, like the city itself, is a celebration of perseverance, unity, and the triumph of the spirit of every woman on this epic drive.

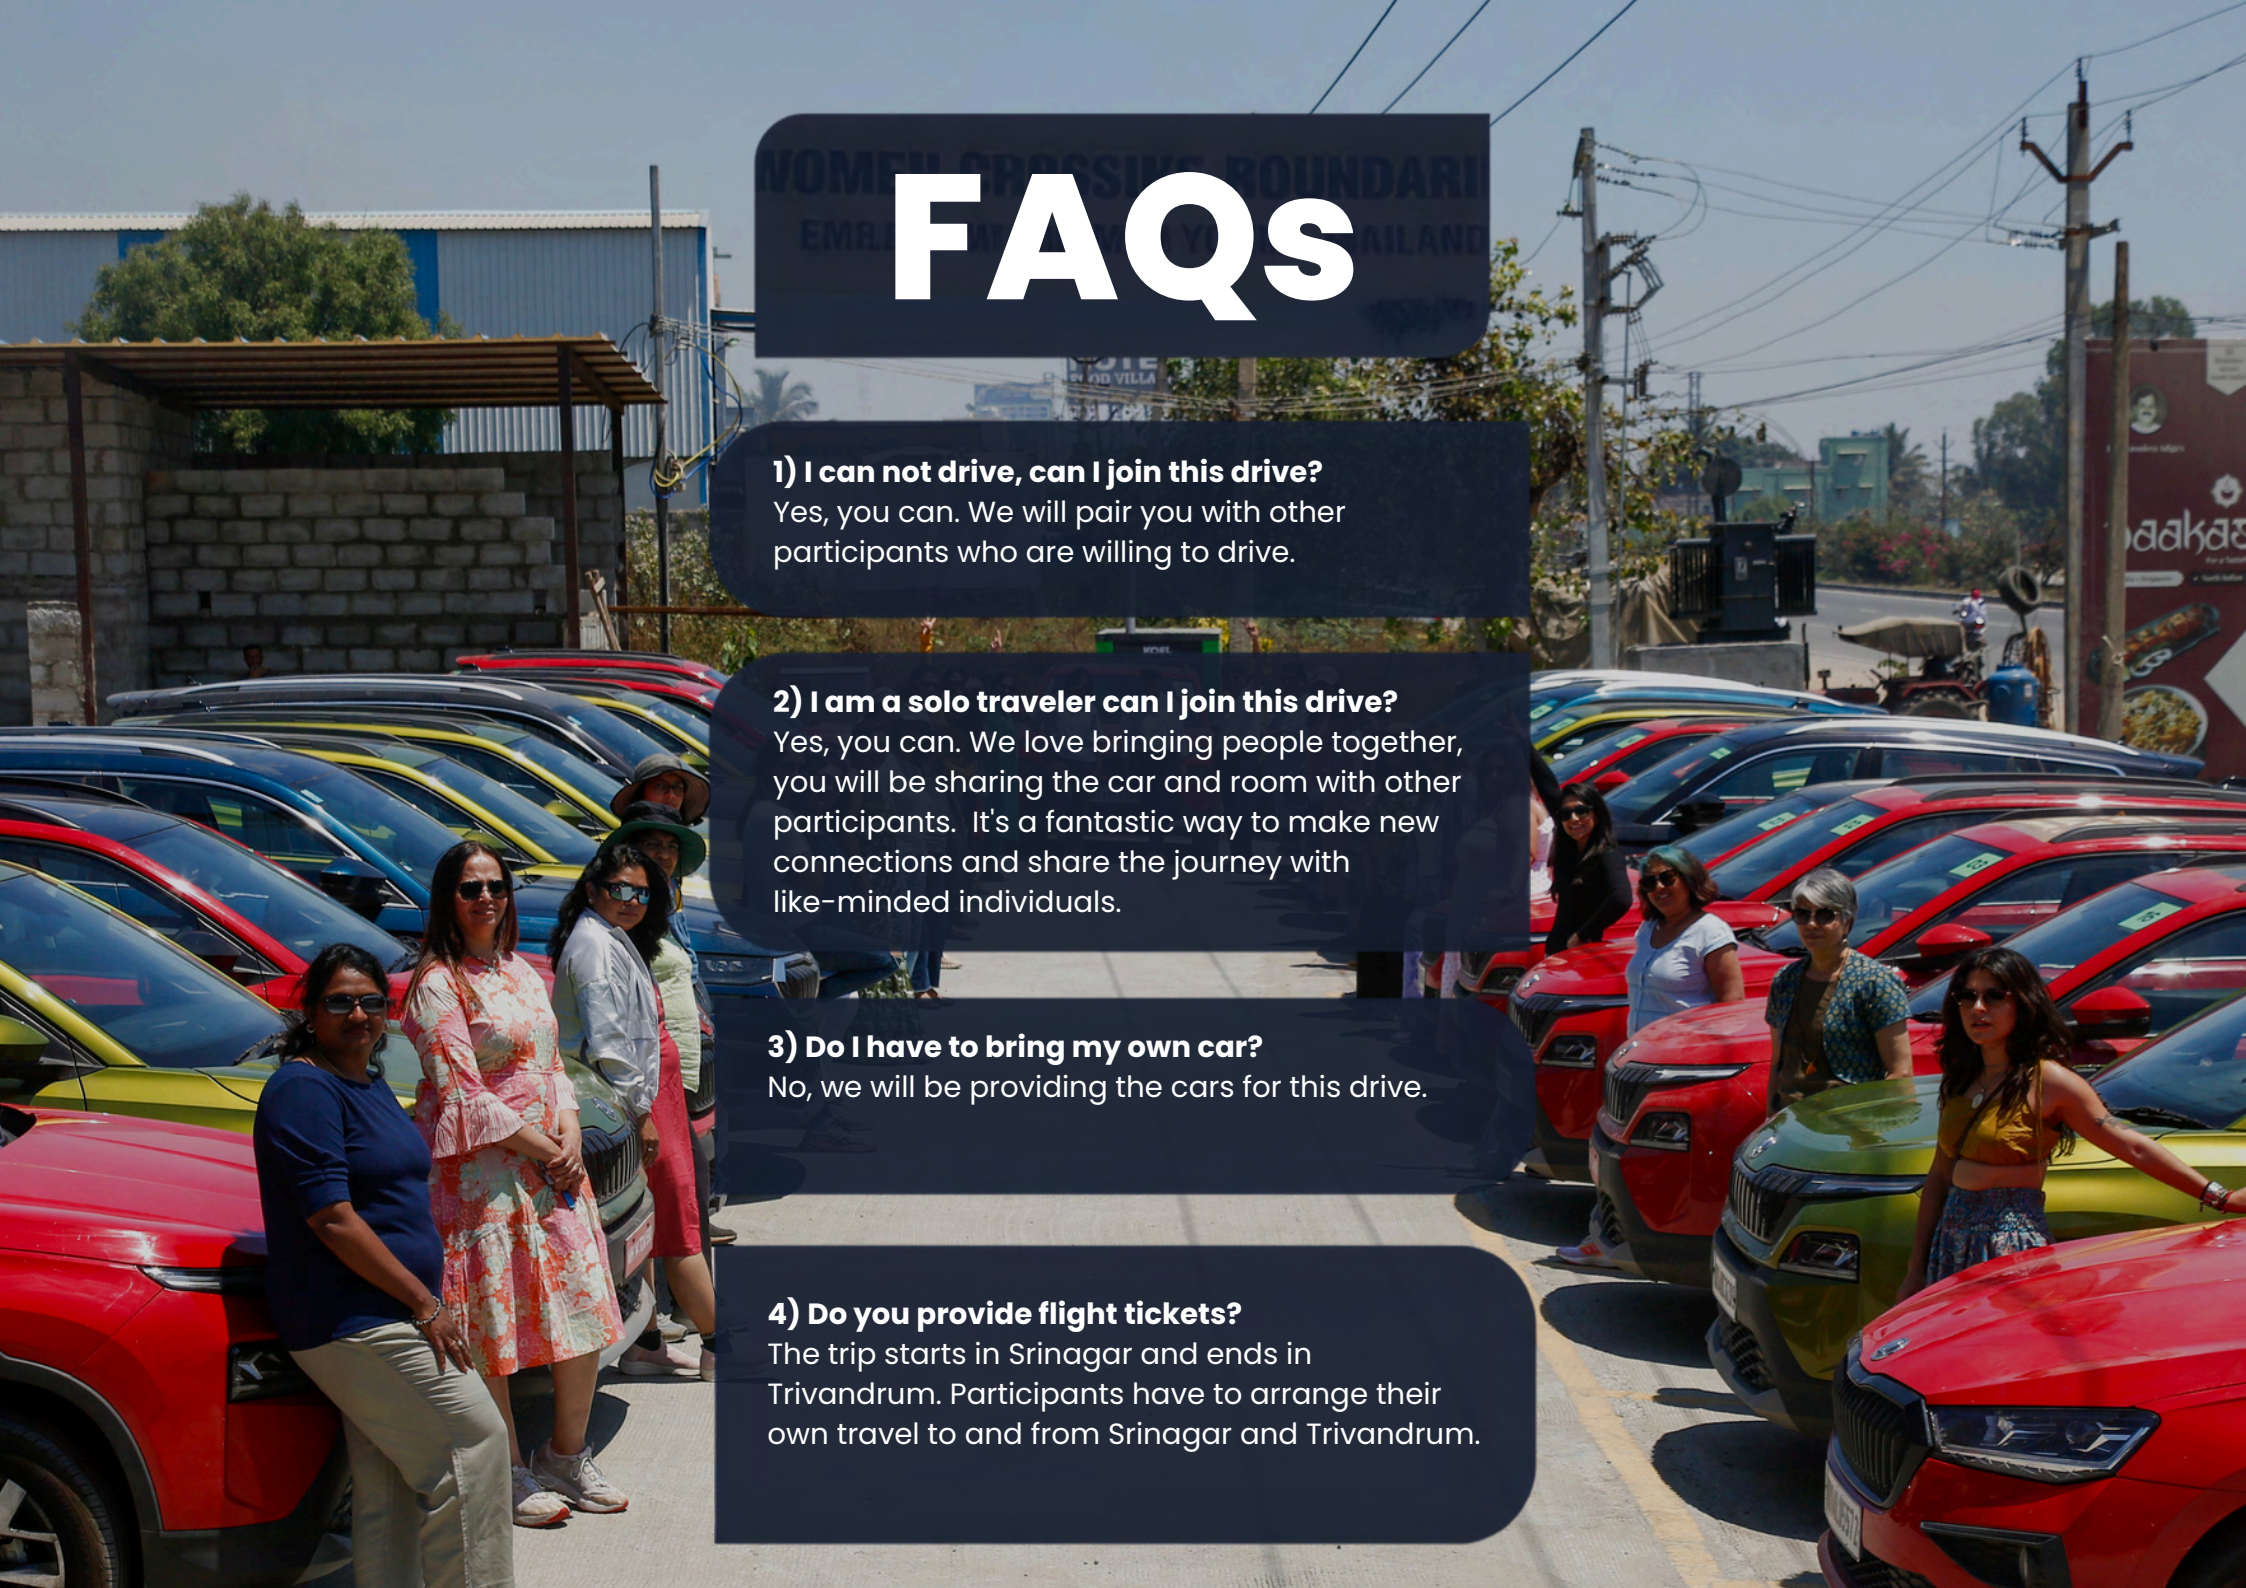

18th March

MADURAI TO KANYAKUMARI & THIRUVANANTHAPURAM, 335 KMS

Today marks the final leg of our extraordinary journey as we drive from Madurai to Kanyakumari and Thiruvananthapuram, the southernmost tip of the Indian subcontinent. This journey offers a stunning fusion of natural beauty, spiritual significance, and coastal charm—allowing each of us to not only immerse in the surroundings but also reflect on the incredible distance we've traveled together, both physically and emotionally. As we pause to reflect on the miles covered and the shared experiences, Kanyakumari feels like more than just a destination. It is a testament to our resilience, unity, and the unwavering spirit of exploration that has guided us all. Here, where the earth meets the ocean, we prepare to create lasting memories in this sacred land, closing the chapter on a journey that will forever remain in our hearts.

19th March

It's time to say goodbye to our incredible journey. We depart from Thiruvananthapuram, our hearts full of memories and adventures from the epic drive.
