Day 1 | 31st October, 2026

Flag Off → Burjuman, Dubai

We kick-off the special All Women weekend drive with a scrumptious breakfast followed by an exciting flag-off. So buckle in and get ready to hit the road for a weekend filled with discovery, camaraderie and thrilling experiences.

Burjuman, Dubai → Jebel Hafeet

175 kms · fuel stop enroute · Mountain drive

The weekend opens with Dubai's skyline fading into open desert highway before the road begins its climb into the Hajar Mountains. Jebel Hafeet's 11.7km summit road — regularly ranked among the world's great driving roads — unwinds in sweeping hairpin bends toward the UAE's second-highest peak of 1249 meters (4098 feet) above sea level, with big-sky views opening up at every turn. We break for a quick fuel stop before the ascent.

Jebel Hafeet → Oryx Hotel

2.8 kms · Lunch at Le Belvedere, Oryx Grand Hotel Jebel Hafeet

Perched 3,000 feet above sea level at the summit, Oryx Grand Hotel is a mountain-top oasis with panoramic views reaching across Al Ain's oases. Enjoy a relaxed lunch at the Le Belvedere that brings together French, Moroccan and Italian flavours in an elegant room with a view — a refined pause after the morning's drive.

Oryx Hotel → Khor Fakkan

190 kms · fuel stop enroute

The route turns east, tracing the Hajar Mountains from desert plains toward the Gulf of Oman coast. Expect dramatic, shifting scenery along the way — rugged mountain passes give way to the first glimpses of the coastline — with a fuel stop built into the drive.

Khor Fakkan Water Falls – Rising 45 metres above Khor Fakkan's Corniche, this dramatic cliffside waterfall is beautifully lit after dark, making it a striking golden-hour photo stop before end the drive and check into a luxury resort by the beach.

Address Beach Resort (or similar) - Check into a luxurious beachfront resort for the night, complete with a private beach, indulgent spa and inviting pool. Unwind with a sundowner as the sun dips over the Gulf of Oman, soaking in the spectacular views and letting the day's adventures slowly melt away. As night falls, settle in for a memorable beachfront dinner under a canopy of stars. Reminisce about the day's adventures with your co-travellers, swapping stories, laughter and highlights from the road. Then, raise a toast to Day One—and to the many more adventures still to come.

Day 2 | 1st November, 2026

Address Beach Resort (or similar) → Al Suhub Rest Area

7.6 kms · View and photos

After a relaxed breakfast, we will start the day with a short drive to Al Suhub, a cloud-level viewpoint 600 metres above sea level with 360-degree views over Khor Fakkan, the Hajar Mountains and the Gulf of Oman. The suspended Cloud Lounge café makes for a scenic stop and one last round of photos before heading home.

Al Suhub → Burjuman, Dubai

140 kms · 2 hours

The final leg retraces the route back across the mountains into Dubai, closing out an unforgettable weekend of mountain drives and coastal views over lunch.
